II. OLD BUSINESS:

There was no Old Business.

III. NEW BUSINESS:

A. PROCLAMATION 2026-11: Honoring the Work of the Kans for Kids Fighting Cancer Foundation:

-Chairman Duane Reif will provide details. Since 1994, aluminum cans have been collected as a way to raise money to assist families dealing with childhood cancer through the efforts of Kans for Kids. Now expanding into Barton, Ellsworth, Pawnee, Rice, Rush, Russell and Stafford Counties, the Kans for Kids Fighting Cancer Foundation has assisted 48 children since inception. The Commission is asked to consider a Proclamation honoring the Foundation and its work during Childhood Cancer Awareness Month.

Commissioner Reif introduced Mary Dutton, Director. He said Dutton was a former board member and took on the Director position after she retired from her full-time job.

Dutton read the proclamation.

Commissioner Zimmerman asked how many board members were currently on the board. Dutton said they had nine but would like to have twelve. Dutton also thanked Barton County and the commissioners for the Solid Waste Management Grant they were awarded. They used those funds for new signs for twelve trailers.

Commissioner Reif said they just had a fundraiser. Dutton said she started in March and they had three or fundraisers since then, Grove Park Golf Tournament, LaSada Clay Shoot and Club 1 Fitness

...sted a Kans for Kids Car Show. She said the Fall Fun Festival would be the end of September at Kasselmann's farm.

Commissioner Reif wanted to recognize Karen Winkelmann. He said she was one of the first board members.

Dutton said they were currently serving four children, one in Rice County, who had been with Kans for Kids for nine years. Serving two in Barton County, one in Great Bend and one in Ellinwood as well as one in Pawnee County.

Commissioner Schlessiger thanked Dutton for coming out of retirement to lead the organization. She said it was a wonderful organization and touched a lot of families.

Commissioner Esfeld said some people may not know that it was Commissioner Reif's children who started Kans for Kids. She asked him how old they were when they started collecting cans.

He said they were 8 and 11 and started to help their cousin who was fighting cancer. Just as she was finishing her treatment, someone in Hoisington was diagnosed and they wanted to help them as well. It went from there as other children were diagnosed.

Dutton presented the commissioners with butterflies made from different aluminum cans. She said a gentleman from Larned made them for Kans for Kids to sell.

Karen Winkelmann wanted to recognize Commissioner Reif and his wife, Debbie, for starting the organization. She wanted to recognize them for the work they had done. She said she had never heard a complaint from them and they were always supporting the kids and their families.

Commissioner Reif said the only way it got where it did was from the support and generosity of everyone in Barton County.

Commissioner Zimmerman said all because of two kids with big hearts, 48 children had been helped.

Commissioner Reif moved to adopt Proclamation 2026-11, Honoring the Work of the Kans for Kids Fighting Cancer Foundation.

Commissioner Schlessiger seconded the motion.

All voted aye. Motion passed.

Chris Schartz, County Works Director, said Foley had begun doing the municipal buyback program every two years, so it made sense to check with them since they were local. Schartz said it was easy to get parts and any work needed done in town instead of having to haul equipment out of town.

Commissioner Zimmerman moved to approve the purchase of two 2026 Caterpillar 26505SC Compact Track Loaders with the trade of a 2024 and a 2026 Bobcat from Foley Equipment. Total cost, $53,039.71, to be paid from the Road and Bridge Fund, Equipment-Operate and Construction Line, 002-92-6190.

Commissioner Esfeld seconded the motion.

All voted aye. Motion passed.

No Executive Session Held

F. EXECUTIVE SESSION:

-Chairman Duane Reif will present. Any Commissioner may make a motion for the board to recess to executive session at this time as allowed by K.S.A. 75-4319. Any motion must contain the justification for the executive session, the subject matter to be discussed, any individuals in addition to the board who will attend the executive session and the time at which the regular session shall resume.

IV. ENDING BUSINESS:

1. Announcements
2. Appointments

V. OTHER BUSINESS:

Commissioner Schlessiger – Little Oiler Daycare and Preschool was close to opening and would be having an open house soon.

Commissioner Reif – Hoisington Labor Day celebration this next weekend with lots of activities.

Sheriff Bellendir – would be going to New Jersey this month to pick up the pistol of George Moses, first Sheriff of Barton County.

VI. ADJOURN:

Commissioner Hutchinson moved to adjourn at 9:37 A.M.

Commissioner Schlessiger seconded the motion.

All voted aye. Motion passed.

ATTEST:

Bev Schmeidler
Barton County Clerk

Duane Reif, Chairman

Notes from Executive Session in Study Session, County Clerk not present:

At 11:48 A.M. Commissioner Zimmerman moved that the Commission enter into Executive Session for a period of twenty (20) minutes. The subject to be discussed will be non-elected personnel. The reason this needs to be discussed in Executive Session is to discuss the performance of a county non-elected employee. The Governing body, the County Administrator, the Assistant County Administrator, and the Central Kansas Community Corrections Director are to be included in said meeting. The Open Meeting will resume at 12:08 P.M. in this room.

Commissioner Schlessinger seconded the motion.

All voted aye. Motion passed.
